FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Parsippany, NJ September 28, 2010, - Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity, Inc. announces its “Chivalry Isn’t Dead” campaign during October 2010 National Domestic Violence Awareness month. Domestic violence affects 1 in 4 women; however, a large number goes unreported. Domestic violence affects individuals in every community regardless of age, race, gender, nationality, religion or economic status.

Throughout October 2010, Lambda Theta Phi chapters will host domestic violence awareness workshops and programs. Programs will include documentaries, presentations and testimonies by domestic violence victims. Lambda Theta Phi is a strong supporter of Faith & Hope, LLC, a Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Organization. Together, with Faith & Hope, LLC, Lambda Theta Phi aspires to break the silence of domestic violence within our community.

Faith & Hope, LLC Faith & Hope, LLC is a Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Organization. We visit communities and college campuses to educate men and women on Domestic Violence and On Campus Crime Prevention. This program/workshop offers true stories of individuals who have experienced domestic violence first hand. You will hear of victims who survived and of some that unfortunately did not. Faith and Hope also offers useful information to help identify and prevent violence in your life and in the lives of those you love.

Founded in 1975 at Kean University in Union, New Jersey, Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity, Inc. is the first and largest nationally recognized Greek-letter organization founded as a Latin Fraternity. The membership of Lambda Theta Phi is open to all college men who support its values of scholarship, respect for all culture, community service, and the advancement and fair treatment of Latinos. Lambda Theta Phi was the first Latin Fraternity to be recognized by the North-American Inter-Fraternity Conference (NIC), is a member of NALFO, and has over 100 entities in: Arizona, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. More information about Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity, Inc. can be found on www.Lambda1975.org.

NALFO (National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations) is an umbrella council for Latino Greek Letter Organizations. The purpose of NALFO is to promote and foster positive interfraternal relations, communication and development of all Latino Fraternal organizations through mutual respect, leadership, honesty, professionalism and education.
