LAMBDA THETA PHI OBSERVES NATIONAL HAZING PREVENTION WEEK

RUTHERFORD, NJ, September 23, 2008 - Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity Incorporated, the first and largest Latino fraternity in the country, is observing National Hazing Prevention week with national programs underway around the country.

Lambda Theta Phi chapters across the county will observe this week in an effort to increase campus awareness. The National Executive Board has developed resources for each chapter to utilize on their respective campus. Lambda encourages all members and non members to participate in the various campus initiatives.

This year National Hazing Prevention Week will be observed September 22 - 26. Additional information on National Hazing Prevention week can be found at www.hazingprevention.org.

Founded in 1975 at Kean University in Union, New Jersey, Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity, Inc. is the first and largest nationally recognized Greek-letter organization founded as a Latin Fraternity. The membership of Lambda Theta Phi is open to all college men who support its values of scholarship, respect for all culture, community service, and the advancement and fair treatment of Latinos. Lambda Theta Phi was the first Latin Fraternity to be recognized by the North-American Inter-Fraternity Conference (NIC), is a member of NALFO, and has over 90 Chapters and Colonies in: Arizona, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. More information about Lambda Theta Phi Latin Fraternity, Inc. can be found on www.Lambda1975.org.
